Presenting

Curt B. Witcher, MLS, FUGA, IGSF

“Making the Genealogy Center in Fort Wayne Your Research Assistant”

The presentation will cover how to explore the holdings of the Genealogy Center both to plan a research trip to Fort Wayne and, equally, to use the Genealogy Center remotely.

CURT B. WITCHER

Curt Witcher is the Director of Special Collections at the Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, IN, managing the widely acclaimed Genealogy Center. He is in his forty-second year of service at the Allen County Public Library.

Curt is a former president of both the Federation of Genealogical Societies and the National Genealogical Society and the founding president of the Indiana Genealogical Society. He has penned many hundreds of articles on topics of interest to family historians, librarians and archivists; and he has presented lectures to historical and genealogical groups across the country. Curt also serves on the Indiana State Historical Records Advisory Board, co-chairs the Indiana Historical Society's publications committee, and serves as a member of the board of the Friends of the Indiana State Archives.
